Welcome to the Better Baker Bootcamp!

This Bootcamp was created to help bakers at all levels feel more confident in their baking!

The questions I'm asked most in my hands-on classes are really the foundations of baking;

- How do I get easier, faster, better, more stress free results from my baked goods?
- How do I achieve those results consistently?

Some things I've learned over my time in the kitchen is that there is more to great baking than just a good recipe. And that great baking doesn't happen by accident.

There's both a science and an art to great baked products, but it starts with understanding the 4 main principles:

- Understanding your oven and how heat impacts baked goods
- Having the right equipment to create the recipes
- Understanding the method being used and what result is likely to be achieved
- Understanding the ingredients and how they behave, so we know what to expect, how to adapt recipes and how to substitute ingredients for dietary reasons (gluten free, dairy free, vegan etc.)

We'll be covering a few of these most crucial concepts during our Bootcamp!

Here's what you can expect during our time together.

- The Better Baker Bootcamp officially runs from Monday 19th to Tuesday 27th October with Live Workshops held at 10:00am each week day!
- Workshops are held based on Adelaide (SA) time.
- I try to keep workshops to no more than an hour in length
- All of our workshops will be held in our Private Facebook group. Facebook can be slightly glitchy at times so be sure to turn on all notifications from our group to be alerted when events are scheduled and live workshops are starting.
- Workshop replay links will be added to www.adelaidebakes.com.au/replay following each class
- Replays will be available until Sunday 1st November
- The classes, recipes, tips, knowledge and resources is created specifically for each Bootcamp group and is not shared anywhere else on the website, this makes Bootcamps a special and unique event for everyone attending!

How to get the most from the Bootcamp

- Download / print our calendar to know what workshop is coming up and when
- Try to attend the workshops live or catch the replays - I know that life is busy and unpredictable, work and timezones can make catching live classes impossible. All replays will be available on this one link www.adelaidebakes.com.au/replay for the duration of the Bootcamp only.
- Each workshop has been created specifically to cover main points that build upon each other throughout the week. To get the most from our Bootcamp and for all of the concepts to marry up it's best to attend them all or as many as possible.
- Participate, take part, comment & share in the group. The more you take part in the group, workshops and q&a's the better I can tailor the Bootcamp to suit you. I can answer any questions that come up to make sure you get the most benefit from our week together.
- Don't forget to check spam or junk folders for e-mail updates during the week - move e-mails from me to your primary folder so you won't miss an update

The Best Part - The Prizes!

I want this Bootcamp to be the best one yet, so I've included fantastic prizes! Here's what you can win and how!

Prize # 3 - Mondo metal cake turntable, RRP $70

Prize # 2 - Some of my favourite cake decorating supplies including a collection of cake scrapers, spatulas, piping bags, colours, palette knives, RRP $100+

Prize # 1 - 6 months access to Adelaide Bakes Academy - my online baking and decorating community where I share all of my knowledge including my best recipes, you have access to all of my online classes and exclusive member content, live q&a sessions and the most supportive baking community, RRP $354

How do you win?

- Participate, take part, comment & share here in the group (even if you're catching the replays)
- If you share on social media use the #beabetterbaker and #betterbakerbootcamp and tag me @adelaidebakes
- The more you take part the better the energy within the group and the better experience I can provide to everyone during Bootcamp!
- Winners will be announced on Tuesday 27th October
